

Khalid N. Haider General Manager - Operations

Khalid Nehal Haider is General Manager – Operations at Paperless Technology.

Khalid is responsible for executing Paperless Technology’s corporate direction and takes part in business planning activities.

Khalid possesses a wide range of experience in software design and development. He is apt at both IBM and Microsoft technologies.

His professional interests revolve around Software Design and System Development Life Cycle.

Khalid obtained his Bachelors of Science (1998) in Computer Science from Sir Syed University of Engineering and Technology, Karachi, Pakistan. Later, Khalid went on to earn his Masters of Science (2001) award in Computer Science from City University of New York, New York, USA.

Khalid is happily married with his wife (also a software engineer) and daughter. He enjoys watching sports broadcast on television and likes traveling.